

2014 JGU-CILRAP Scholarship in International Criminal Law

The 2014 JGU-CILRAP Scholarship in International Criminal Law will be offered to the best student in the fall semester course “International Criminal Law” taught by Professor Susan Lamb from 1 August 2014 onwards. The Scholarship amounts to EUR 1,000. It will be awarded on the basis of the examination paper, research essay and course participation. Questions about the Scholarship can be addressed to Professor Lamb or scholarship@cilrap.org. The Scholarship is generously financed by the Centre for International Law Research and Policy (CILRAP). You may find information about the Centre at <http://www.cilrap.org/>.